SCHOOL NAME & CITY:

NEW, MANDATORY REQUIREMENT TEACHER EMAIL

(if you do not have one, you must give us the email address of someone who can easily share our emails with you)

Explain here if you expect your class will have more than 30 or fewer than 17 students*, or if you believe the grade you teach or anything else pertinent may soon change.

JA can work with you to combine 2 small classrooms if that is your situation*

Explain here if you would like to guarantee JA for your class by either identifying a NEW volunteer presenter or submitting $89 to JA, covering the base cost of the program materials.

Note: Teachers with multiple requests need to submit multiple forms.

Principals, please do not submit requests on behalf of your teachers without their acknowledgment and buy-in.

We prefer that teachers individually submit a Request Application as the first step in their commitment to the JA experience.

Junior Achievement is courses in Financial Literacy, Work Readiness & Entrepreneurship, taught one class period per week, usually within Social Studies, Business or Family & Consumer Science. JA is an interactive experience, with workbooks, games, puzzles, posters, role-playing and group activities. The students have fun while they learn concepts, skills and learning standards, many required by MCAS, and while they develop critical thinking, teamwork and problem solving skills.

The "teacher" is a businessperson trained by JA, who is volunteering his/her time with the consent of their workplace. Volunteers can also be parents recruited through PTOs, or college students studying to be professionals, or retirees, etc.

All JA volunteers add their personal experiences from the world of work to the course lessons. For the 2009-10 school year, 287 local teachers in 73 schools received JA for their students.
